2010

CALIFORNIA
CHARDONNAY

"Years ago, while inspecting a newly planted vineyard, a hawk appeared overhead. It wasn't a rare or unusual occurrence but it made a particularly strong impression on me that morning: this was his vineyard as well as ours. These are the insights that keep us committed to employing the most environmentally beneficial practices. And the land rewards us with the highest quality, most flavorful fruit for our wines." —Steve Rued, Winemaker

WINEMAKER'S NOTES:

This vintage is sourced from carefully selected vineyards in Monterey, Trinity, Mendocino, and Napa counties. Warm sunny days and cool nights during the 2010 growing season made for ideal growing conditions for this lush California Chardonnay. The fruit had good acidity and rich flavors, giving us an elegant, well-balanced wine.
